

RICE UNIVERSITY'S
BAKER INSTITUTE
FOR PUBLIC POLICY

The Baker Roundtable is the Baker Institute for Public Policy's membership forum. To join the Baker Roundtable is to engage with a network of civic-minded individuals who champion the nonpartisan policy research and rigorous scholarship of the Baker Institute's more than 200 leading experts from academia, the private sector and the government. Learn more below and register online now.

BAKER ROUNDTABLE MEMBERSHIP LEVELS

Membership privileges apply to a couple or one individual plus a guest.

All levels of annual membership include:

- Invitations to Baker Briefings, member-exclusive events designed to provide expert analysis on urgent and ongoing policy issues
- Invitations to the annual member-exclusive Fall Reception with Baker Institute experts
- Subscription to the Baker Institute email newsletter
- Access to both Baker Institute member and public events
- Complimentary parking at Baker Institute events
- Opportunity to become a Roundtable Representative, an individual who represents his or her membership level as part of the Membership Committee, after one (1) year of membership

DELEGATE ($500)

- All base benefits

COLLEAGUE ($1,250)

*Fair market value (FMV) of benefit received: $100.
Tax-deductible contribution: $1,150.*

All base benefits, plus:

- A member-exclusive gift
- Priority access to registration for select events

PARTNER ($2,500)

FMV of benefit received: $200. Tax-deductible contribution: $2,300.

All previous benefits, plus:

- Invitations to the annual Roundtable Dinner hosted by Amb. David M. Satterfield, director of the Baker Institute

DIPLOMAT ($5,000)

FMV of benefit received: $200. Tax-deductible contribution: $4,800.

All previous benefits, plus:

- Invitations to VIP functions before or after select events
- Reserved seating at Baker Institute events

AMBASSADOR ($10,000)

FMV of benefit received: $250. Tax-deductible contribution: $9,750.

All previous benefits, plus:

- The opportunity to host a speaking engagement featuring, or have a one-on-one meeting with, a Baker Institute expert

STATESMAN CIRCLE ($25,000)

FMV of benefit received: $350. Tax-deductible contribution: $24,650.

All previous benefits, plus:

- The ability to bring three guests to events (for a total of four seats)
- Invitation to annual luncheon hosted by Amb. David M. Satterfield, director of the Baker Institute

To learn more about discounted rates with all Delegate-level or Colleague-level benefits for Rice faculty, staff and retirees; local, state and federal government employees; and nonprofit employees please email roundtable@rice.edu.

In compliance with the Internal Revenue Code Notice 2017-73 and IRS guidance, Rice does not accept, in whole or in part, payments for events, memberships, auction items, tickets, etc., from Donor Advised Funds, foundations or Qualified Charitable Distributions from an IRA account. Donors of IRA Qualified Charitable Distributions and Donor Advised Fund grants are prohibited from claiming a charitable tax deduction for their distributions and grants. Bifurcated payments are also strictly prohibited. We are deeply grateful for your contributions, and donors are always encouraged to pay membership dues associated with benefits from a personal or business account, through a gift of securities or a wire transfer. Please visit giving.rice.edu to see all the ways you can support the work of Rice University's Baker Institute for Public Policy.

Corporate matching gifts are also a great way to maximize personal contributions and increase the impact of your gift. To find out if your company has a matching gift policy, please enter your employer's name in Rice University's Matching Gift form.

For more information or to join/renew online, visit bakerinstitute.org/roundtable.
For questions, please contact us by email at roundtable@rice.edu or telephone at 713-348-4945.